- 1. Opening Business-Meeting began at 4:04 and Angie Taylor introduced the new member of SBDM council, Milath Lawson.
 - a. Agenda was approved by Sarah and seconded by Milath. Council was in consensus.
 - b. November 2015 Minutes were approved by Marie and seconded by Nikki. Council was in consensus.
 - c. Good News Report-Rebecca Lutz, a CCES student, was nominated to attend the KMEA music conference. She is the only student in the district invited to attend. We had a successful district walkthrough on December 8th.
 - d. Public Comment-Michelle Simpson stated that she would like to see the ad-hoc committee look into making it a SBDM policy for all students scoring in the bottom quartile in math and/or reading automatically be placed in Tier 2 intervention. Angie Taylor said that Cindy Brown is in head of the instructional practice committee and to let her know this information. Michelle Simpson said that she will discuss this information with her in order to have it presented to the council in January.
- 2. Student Achievement Report/Data
 - a. Assessing Student Achievement-Kindergarten and first grade students are still taking MAP. All of the data will be presented next month to SBDM council.
 - b. Student Achievement Report was presented-Data from MAP results was presented, but suggestions were made to make for way of presenting it: 1. Divide Miller's classroom by grade level. 2. Teachers want a complete breakdown so add novice. 3. Add language mechanics results.
- 3. School Improvement Planning
 - a. Monthly Review was presented to the council.
 - b. CSIP Approval-This is due on Friday. Nikki suggested adding how classes use outdoor classrooms. The committee read the CSIP rough draft, made revisions and approved the draft. The only thing not approved during the meeting was the missing piece. This will be completed by Angie Taylor, emailed to all members of the council for review and approval will be given through email before Friday, December 18, 2015.
 - c. Budget Development Report was discussed by council.
- 4. Budget Report-This was looked at and discussed amongst the committee. Showtime, a test taking strategies program was purchased for our school. This was purchased for our school's Novice Reduction Plan.

5. Standing/Program Review/Ad Hoc Committee Reports-1. Homework Policy Committee: Amy Jo Sims and a parent, Beth Mercer, are looking at homework policies from other schools to help work on developing new policies for CCES. 2. Instruction Practices Committee-Cindy Brown is in charge of this committee. 3. Behavior Policy Committee-Jennifer Stone is in charge of this committee.
6. Old Business was discussed.
7. New Business-Our school is implementing the Fish Philosophy. Angie Taylor is in the process of going around to all classrooms in our school to discuss the meaning/expectations. Nikki said it is important that Angie address all classrooms so that all students know specific expectations throughout the building and teachers are made aware as well. Consistency and participation by all parties involved is the key!
